MAYOR ANGRY WITH THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Rev. John P. Peters Complains That a Generous Offer Was Slighted.

Parish Houses of St. Michael's Church Placed at the Disposal of the Board

Inspectors Approved, but Nothing Has Been Done Toward Utilizing the Buildings.

REPORTED ON AS UNSUITABLE.

Still Thousands of Children Have Been Known to Be Schoolless for Over Two Months and No Relief Is in Sight.

Mayor William L. Strong was angry yesterday. When the Public Schools opened September 14, the Journal told of thousands of children excluded because there were no seats for them. Investigation proved that there were over 50,000 out. Recently the Mayor wrote to the pustors of churches asking them to place at the dischurches asking them to place at the disposal of the schools their class rooms. A few responded—a very few. He sent their responses to the Board of Education.
Yesterday the Mayor got a letter from the Rev. John P. Peters, of St. Michael's Church, No. 220 West Ninety-ninth street, over which the Mayor exploded. He said it was a shame that such neglect as the Rev.
Mr. Peters reported should be. He sent a copy of the letter to President Robert Maclay, of the Board of Education, with a demand for the reason of this neglect.

Br. Peters's Offer. Dr. Peters's Offer.

The letter is in part as follows: write to say that the parish buildings of St.

Education was in session yesterday after-

They formed a delegation of the college class of Grammar School No. 47, at No. 30 East Twelfth street, and their object was to present a petition to the Mayor, asking that Miss Felicia Griffin, one of the favorite teachers, might not be transferred to the school at Ninety-third street and Amsterdam avenue.

Theresa Poggi and Adelaide Fitzgerald, named as a committee to see the Mayor, trembled as Officer Kennel led them to seats in the Executive chamber.

"What a nice-docking old gentleman!" Miss Fitzgerald exclaimed, as she glanced over at the Mayor. "I could kiss lim." "Tell them I cannot interfere in these matters." was the Mayor's mandate when told what his pretty visitors wanted.

"He must see us." said Miss Fitzgerald finily when the message was delivered.

The Mayor motioned the committee to his desk.
